NRRC Statute

RANGELAND RESOURCES COMMISSION

NRS 563.250 Definitions. Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to [NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

As used in NRS 563.250 to 563.380, inclusive, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 563.260, 563.270 and 563.280 have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

(Added to NRS by 1999, 1676)

NRS 563.260 “Commission” defined. Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to [NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

“Commission” means the Rangeland Resources Commission created by NRS 563.290.

(Added to NRS by 1999, 1676)

NRS 563.270 “Grazing lands” defined. Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to [NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

“Grazing lands” means any public lands in this state:

1. That are managed or controlled by the United States Forest Service or the Bureau of Land Management; and
2. Upon which a person herds or grazes cattle or sheep pursuant to a license, lease or permit issued for that purpose by the Secretary of Agriculture or the Secretary of the Interior.

(Added to NRS by 1999, 1676)

NRS 563.280 “State grazing board” defined. Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to [NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

“State grazing board” means a state grazing board created by the provisions of NRS 568.040.

(Added to NRS by 1999, 1676)

NRS 563.290 Creation; members; officers; terms; vacancies; expenses. Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to [NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

1. The Rangeland Resources Commission is hereby created. The Commission consists of:
 - (a) One member from each state grazing board; and
 - (b) The president of:
 - (1) The Nevada Cattlemen’s Association or its successor organization;
 - (2) The Nevada Woolgrowers’ Association or its successor organization; and
 - (3) The Nevada Farm Bureau or its successor organization.

Each member specified in this paragraph serves as an ex officio member of the Commission and may designate another person to serve on his behalf.

2. Not less than 30 days before the expiration of the term of a member of the Commission, the state grazing board from which the member was appointed shall submit to the Governor a written list of two persons for appointment to the Commission. A person nominated by a state grazing board must be a member of that board. If such a list is submitted to the Governor by a state grazing board within the period prescribed in this subsection, the Governor shall appoint to the Commission one member from the list. If the list is not submitted to the Governor by a state grazing board within that period, the Governor shall appoint to the Commission one member who is a member of that board.

3. The members of the Commission shall elect a Chairman and Vice Chairman by a majority vote. After the initial election, the Chairman and Vice Chairman serve in the office for a term of 1 year beginning on July 1 of each year. If a vacancy occurs in the chairmanship or vice chairmanship, the members of the Commission shall elect a Chairman or Vice Chairman from among its members to serve for the remainder of the unexpired term.

4. After the initial terms, each member of the Commission who is appointed serves for a term of 4 years.

5. A vacancy on the Commission must be filled in the same manner as the original appointment.

6. Each member of the Commission:

(a) Serves without compensation; and

(b) While engaged in the business of the Commission, and to the extent that money is available for that purpose from the fees collected pursuant to NRS 563.340, is entitled to receive the per diem allowance and travel expenses provided for state officers and employees generally.

7. The per diem allowance and travel expenses of a member of the Commission must be paid from the fees collected pursuant to NRS 563.340.

(Added to NRS by 1999, 1676)

NRS 563.300 Meetings; quorum. Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to [NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

1. The members of the Commission shall meet at least quarterly and at the times and places specified by a call of the Chairman or by a majority of the members of the Commission.

2. A majority of the members of the Commission constitute a quorum, and a quorum may exercise all the powers and duties of the Commission.

(Added to NRS by 1999, 1677)

NRS 563.310 General authority. Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to [NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

The Commission may:

1. Cooperate with any local, state or federal agency, any local, state or national organization or any representatives of an industry whose duties and powers are the same as or similar to the duties and powers of the Commission;

2. Employ such persons or enter into such contracts as it determines are necessary to assist it in carrying out the provisions of NRS 563.250 to 563.380, inclusive;

3. Grant, donate or expend money:

(a) To construct or maintain a range improvement; or

(b) For any other purpose beneficial to the livestock industry on grazing lands; and

4. Purchase, lease or own any real or personal property.

(Added to NRS by 1999, 1677)

NRS 563.320 Authority to research, advertise, make determinations and take action to support and stabilize livestock industry on grazing lands. Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to [NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

The Commission may:

1. Conduct research and surveys to determine the opinions and knowledge of the residents of this state concerning the livestock industry on grazing lands;
2. Establish programs to provide information to the residents of this state concerning the livestock industry on grazing lands;
3. Conduct advertising campaigns to promote the livestock industry on grazing lands;
4. Support the responsible control, management or use of grazing lands;
5. Compile information concerning the livestock industry on grazing lands and disseminate that information to each state grazing board;
6. Make determinations concerning the availability of forage on grazing lands; and
7. Take any action it determines is necessary to stabilize the livestock industry on grazing lands.

(Added to NRS by 1999, 1677)

NRS 563.330 Authority to apply for and accept gifts, grants, donations and contributions. Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to [NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

1. The Commission may apply for or accept any gifts, grants, donations or contributions from any source to assist it in carrying out the provisions of NRS 563.250 to 563.380, inclusive.
2. Any money the Commission receives pursuant to subsection 1 must be deposited in the State Treasury pursuant to the provisions of NRS 563.350.

(Added to NRS by 1999, 1678)

NRS 563.340 Fee for grazing animals; refund. Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to [NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

1. The Commission shall, not later than January 15 of each year, charge and collect from each person who grazed cattle or sheep on grazing lands during the preceding calendar year a fee of 10 cents for each animal unit month that he was authorized by the United States Forest Service or the Bureau of Land Management to use during the immediately preceding year.
2. A person who pays the fee required by this section may, not earlier than January 15 of each year and not later than February 15 of that year, apply to the Commission for a refund of the fee paid for the immediately preceding year. The application must be submitted on a form prescribed by the Commission. Upon receipt of the request and after determining that the fee has been paid by the person requesting the refund, the Commission shall, within 60 days after making that determination, refund to that person an amount equal to the fee paid by the person.
3. As used in this section, "animal unit month" means the amount of forage required to sustain one cow or its equivalent for 1 month.

(Added to NRS by 1999, 1678)

NRS 563.350 Deposit and use of money of Commission. [Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the

Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

1. Any money the Commission receives pursuant to NRS 563.330 and 563.340:
 - (a) Must be deposited in the State Treasury and accounted for separately in the State General Fund;
 - (b) May be used by the Commission only for the costs of carrying out the provisions of NRS 563.250 to 563.380, inclusive; and
 - (c) Does not revert to the State General Fund at the end of any fiscal year.
2. Any interest or income earned on the money in the account must be credited to the account. Any claims against the account must be paid in the manner that other claims against the State are paid.

(Added to NRS by 1999, 1678)

NRS 563.360 Failure to pay fee for grazing animals: Notice to Attorney General or district attorney; penalty. Expires by limitation on December 31 of the first year during which the Governor proclaims that the amount of the fees refunded by the Rangeland Resources Commission pursuant to [NRS 563.340 for the immediately preceding calendar year is more than 50 percent of the fees collected by the Commission pursuant to that section for that calendar year.]

1. If a person fails to pay the fee required by NRS 563.340, the Commission may provide a written notice of that fact to the Attorney General or the district attorney of the county in which the person resides.
2. A person who fails to pay the fee required by NRS 563.340 shall:
 - (a) For the first violation, pay a civil penalty of not more than $250.
 - (b) For the second violation, pay a civil penalty of not more than $500.
